Policy/Procedure

1. Flags at stations shall be flown daily; however, flags shall not be flown before sunup or after sundown unless illuminated.

2. The Funeral Flag shall be flown below the American Flag, at full staff, in honor of a deceased member of the Department.

3. The Funeral Flag shall be flown from the time the Department is notified of the member's death until sundown the day of the funeral. Care shall be exercised to ensure the Funeral Flag is deployed and retrieved in a timely manner. Violation of this procedure may result in discipline.

4. The Funeral Flag may be flown at such other times as may be ordered by the Fire Chief or appropriate authority.

5. If the State Flag is available, it is to be flown directly below the American Flag.

6. Company Officers and Station Commanders shall ensure flags are in good repair. New flags shall be obtained from the Maintenance Bureau when needed.
