Policy/Procedure

If the incident is presumed to be within the jurisdiction of the Toledo Fire and Rescue Department, but upon arrival is found to be outside of that jurisdiction fire personnel shall:

1. Place themselves on the scene giving the exact location and stating that they are indeed out of the city's jurisdiction.

2. Fire personnel shall operate as they would under normal conditions.

3. Upon arrival of the proper department and/or jurisdiction representatives, and after consultation with that jurisdiction's incident commander, crews may return to service unless asked to remain on-scene. If asked to remain, crews shall instruct Dispatch to assign them to a mutual aid incident at their location and direct the officer in charge of the neighboring community to request our assistance through proper channels.

4. The neighboring community's incident commander shall remain in charge of the incident; however, Toledo Fire and Rescue officers retain command of TFRD personnel.

5. TFRD personnel shall note all pertinent facts in the "comment" section of the Incident Report as well as the company journal.
