Policy/Procedure

1. When a crew is dispatched to an incident where a victim has been injured on City property or while walking on sidewalks or curbs that are owned by the City, and the victim does not require treatment at a hospital or refuses aid, the Incident Commander shall direct Dispatch to send a police crew to interview the victim and take a report.

2. If the victim requests transport to a hospital for treatment, Command shall direct Dispatch to have the police meet the victim at the hospital.

3. All pertinent information shall be noted on the patient report and in the company journal.
